

Name _____

The Little Red Hen

A little red hen planted some seeds to grow wheat. "Will you help me plant the seeds?" she asked her friends.

"Not today," said the cat, the dog and the pig.

The hen planted the seeds, all by herself. When the wheat had grown, the hen asked the cat, the dog and the pig to help her cut it down. "Not today," they all said and went off to nap in the sun.

The little red hen cut the wheat, all by herself. She took one look at her sleepy friends and took the wheat to the mill to be made into flour, all by herself.

The little red hen was ready to make some bread. She asked, "Will you help me mix the bread?"

"Not today," said the dog, the cat and the pig. The little red hen mixed the bread and then baked it, all by herself.

The bread was ready. The dog, the cat and the pig showed up at the little red hen's door and asked, "Will you slice us some nice fresh bread?"

"Not today," said the little red hen. She sat down and happily ate the bread, all by herself.
