

AMI Assignment Day 1

For

Career Readiness, College & Career Readiness, Internship, & Financial Literacy Students

Inventory Of the Mind

In the past week, we have discussed a myriad of things, areas of life, and decisions that impact one's financial security.

1. In reference to the course of discussions, list two things that you have learned or things that you have never thought about – before coming to this class.

A. _____

B. _____

2. Of the areas listed below, which affect one's financial security?

_____ A. Physical well-being

_____ B. Mental well-being

_____ C. Emotional well-being

_____ D. Social well-being

_____ E. Spiritual well-being

3. Of the symbolism depicted at the entry-way to the classroom, what represents your ...

past? _____

present? _____

future? _____

4. The classroom entry represents your _____ of life.
5. Symbolically, "pullin' weeds" (in your life) refers to the need to break _____, so that one may cultivate _____.
6. In accordance with our discussion, one must work to use self-discipline in all four areas of their life. List these in alphabetical order.

A. _____

B. _____

C. _____

D. _____

AMI Day 1

7. Every moment in the public eye is an _____ .
8. A better world begins with _____ .
9. List 5 study techniques which helps you easily and quickly store, retain, and quickly and easily retrieve information.
 - A.
 - B.
 - C.
 - D.
 - E.
10. In this class, have you learned any new words and/or definitions since the beginning of school? _____
If you can remember any new words and/or definitions, list them below.