

Name: _____

Date: _____

Properties of Matter Vocabulary

Instructions: Use the word bank to complete each statement about properties of matter.

Word Bank: matter; energy; mass; physical; properties; malleable; volume; characteristic; element; viscous; density

1. Another word for property is _____.
2. _____ properties of matter are properties that can be measured or observed without matter changing into a different substance.
3. A substance with unique properties that is composed of only 1 type of atom is called a(n) _____.
4. The measure of the space matter occupies is _____.
5. The amount of matter in an object is its _____.
6. Honey is more _____ than water. That means it flows more slowly than water.
7. Metals are _____, which means that they can be hammered or shaped into form.
8. _____ is mass per unit volume.
9. _____ is needed to change the phase of matter.
10. Chemical changes transform one type of _____ into another kind, which may have different _____.